At the foot of the pass, nestled next to a waterfall, is Liarsville Gold Rush Trail Camp and Salmon Bake. Here a cast of sourdoughs and dance hall girls will entertain you with a hilarious melodrama, recite a poem by the "Bard of the North," Robert Service, and teach you the art of finding that precious metal that drove men and women wild with Gold Fever! Then, you will be set free in the Liarsville gold fields, where you'll hit pay dirt!

Sit down for a freshly grilled hot Alaskan salmon, served with potatoes, baked beans, coleslaw, sourdough rolls, coffee, lemonade, and for dessert, hot apple strudel!! After lunch, wander over to the little hamlet of shops and residences or snuggle up to one of our friendly giant sled dogs (or a sumptuous Madam!).

The tour continues to the world famous Red Onion Saloon. The Red Onion's Madam will break out the beer, wine and root beer and throw you a private party in the prestigious upstairs brothel. You will be entertained by incredible tales of the girls who used to work in these historic rooms! You will see the priceless nickel silver dress worn by one of the Onion's Madams and many other original artifacts left by the "soiled doves." Embrace the true spirit of 1898 and sign on for the experience of a lifetime.
