

OLD LOG CHURCH
MUSEUM

Yukon's Spirited History

The Old Log Church Museum is a place of heart, soul and passion. One of the oldest buildings in Whitehorse, it is also a true original.

The Old Log Church built in 1900 by the Reverend Richard Bowen

Beaded clerical stole from Old Crow

Mukluks from the Peel River area

Experience this territorial historic site from the outside in. Enjoy the serenity of its park and grounds, and the authenticity of its quaint, original log structure, erected in 1900.

Then step through its doors and discover the fascinating stories and artifacts of Yukon's early pioneers and missionaries.

Carry away a sense of the passion, conviction and determination of the men and women who helped shape Yukon's story.

Open mid May to early September:
Daily, 10am–6pm

Admission:

$6 for adults

$5 for seniors and students

free under 6 yrs old

$12 families

$20 membership

I.O. Stringer, first missionary to the Inuvialuit (Western Inuit), later known as "the Bishop who ate his boots"

The Old Log Church Museum is in the heart of downtown Whitehorse on the corner of Elliott Street and 3rd Avenue, just one block off Main Street.

Phone: (867) 668-2555
www.OldLogChurchMuseum.ca